Thank you SO much for adding my creations to yours! I love art, it's my night and day and I am pleased to give away my work for you to enjoy in yours. All my images on the FREE site are just that, free for you to use. However, some people very kindly use the donate button because this helps keep me employed as an artist and it helps me to buy more paints etc, which in turn you benefit from. If you have kindly donated, however small, THANK YOU SO MUCH!!!!

I am adding new Gelli prints for you to use so do let me see how they have been used in your art, I would love to see them! Should I start up a followers page? Let me know if you would like to see my art in your art, on my site. Maybe I could add a link to your blog?

Please share my pages with your journaling friends. Thank you. x

Blessings,

Sue xx
